"And what of a man who doesn't pay his medical attention to his health?"
asked Wyndham Snell. "Cramp?"
"I pay mine—and he's healthy; and for why? Because he pays me."
"Ah—natural accommodation, I suppose.
He cures your body, and you cure his—don't you waste a pun. If you had any sense of humor, Mr. Cramp, you would perceive the folly of asking a professional gentleman for money in such an unbusinesslike way. I was going to give a rather extensive order for boots, and as you transfer my custom to the West End, and hang me off! I'll over do a good deal of business with you. I've a pair of boots Cramp, and with every tradesman in Pig-gott's Town."
"That's true enough, Doctor—seeing they've done to you."
"They have to you, my man. Pick up those boots, John. Thank you, my dear.
There, Mr. Cramp. One—two—three—four—five—six—seven—eight—nine—ten—and the change. And there, Mr. Cramp—I'll make you a present of the boots; you may keep them yourself if you please, or you may be off for an impudent blackguard; go to blazes, you cobbling thief, and if they condescend to ask who kicked you there with your own toe-leathers, say it was Doctor Wyndham Snell."
Mr. Cramp gave a snarl, and his mouth a pouting smile of amusement, as he looked at the boots. "You did not know I was a cobbler in a dream—and I'll be back again. No—they did not kick me away. He scowled a receipt with a pencil mark on the bill, and then, hanging the old boots, one in each hand, he said: "I'll be back again, my man."
"You'll be back again, my man. Pick up those boots, John. Thank you, my dear.
There, Mr. Cramp. One—two—three—

The Dull Summer Season

So much dreaded by the average merchant, has had no terrors for us this year.

Thanks to a choice stock, liberal prices and a knowledge of the wants of our customers, in addition to a little extra push—the trade has been very satisfactory.

We still have some excellent bargains left.

EDITORIAL PRIVILEGES.

The Globe's announcement that the Manitoba school question has been settled is a slight to the result of the election in North York.

The Ontario and other Grit journals have failed, so far, to put out their objection to non-resident candidates in the case of the Hon. Wm. Patterson, who is seeking election in North York. But it is only in the case of Conservatives that the Grits raise the "non-resident" cry.

The untimely death of Mr. Balfour, Provincial Secretary, will be sincerely regretted by the people of Ontario. Mr. Balfour was a man of ability who made his way in life as a man of the right stamp, whose future was full of promise.

In nominating Mr. Andrew Pattillo, editor and proprietor of the Woodstock Sentinel-Breeze, as Sir Oliver Mowat's successor in the Legislature, the Liberals of North York have chosen wisely and well. Mr. Pattillo is not only one of the best able and scholarly of Canadian editors, but he is a politician of moderate views and a highly capable man of affairs, as witness his great prominence in connection with the dairy industry and the good roads movement.

There will now be a grand scramble for the late Mr. Balfour's position, with Mr. Stratton, of Peterborough West, leading in the contest.

The fight in North York is a hot one. Mr. Patterson's opposition to Orange incorporation may prove his undoing. But perience have sent many of their best known stumpers into the riding.

Cross petitions have been entered against the two well-known Preston in West Toronto and "I bet you" Cook, in East Simcoe. As the Minister of Education says: "Mr. Preston resigned the post of Librarian of the Ontario Legislature to carry the Laurier banner during the general election, and was reappointed immediately after his defeat. He was not contented with his good fortune, but made himself busy promoting the contestation of his opponent's seat. Now he is getting some of his own medicine, and it serves him right."

The trouble with Mr. Laurier is that he assumes that our Government has been too harsh with the Yankees and too lenient with them. The contrary was the case.

Mr. Laurier does his best to invite the Yankees to make themselves unpleasant towards Canada by speaking of the so-called "bonding privilege" as a favor for which we ought to give them privileges in return. On the contrary, it was conclusively shown, when the subject was discussed some years ago, that although the repeal of the bonding regulations would necessarily cause some disturbance of trade it would, within twelve months, prove one of the most advantageous things ever taken on behalf of Canada, as it would compel our people to use Canadian steam, ships and railways and hasten the establishment of our far line on the Atlantic.

ADVANCE PAYMENT.

HAMILTON, Ont., Aug. 21st, 1896. The Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association, Cor. Duane & Broadway, New York.

Dear Sirs:—I have to thank you for advance payment of two hundred dollars ($200.00), received from the Ontario Provincial Policy Board, 1897, carried by the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association.

I cannot but appreciate the generosity of your company in offering to advance to me the two of the policy as soon as the death occurred, and before profits were completed, to enable me to meet funeral and other necessary expenses. It shows a willingness on the part of the company to share in the liberality and to do more than is required under the law.

Yours truly,

THE CATTLE STEALING CASE.

More Circumstantial Evidence Presented by the Crown Today.

Friday, Aug. 21.

The cattle stealing case continued yesterday afternoon at 6:30 as adjourned till 9:30 this morning.

The first witness in the afternoon was Pringle Hill, who lives at Mr. Blanchard's, a farmer, a witness who was called by Mr. Blanchard on July 17th and went to bed before ten o'clock. She was around the house looking after the cattle, and saw a few cattle on foot coming towards the house.

There was a buggy about the house. The horse was a grey, there were two men and the cattle, but could not distinguish who they were.

Cross-examined by Mr. Porter, said she could not distinguish the color of the cattle, and could not see clearly that night. She could not distinguish the color of the cattle, and could not see clearly that night.

Cross-examined by Mr. Northrup, witness said she had been in the house between twelve and one o'clock towards the house. Could not tell the color of the cattle. Went down the road to look for a horse. There was a buggy with the cattle. Could not say whether there were more than two men with the cattle or not.

One of the cattle of the drove turned back and a young man ran after her. He finally let her go. The heifer came back with a cow and stayed with her. He saw her afterwards on the road. He did not recognize the man after the heifer. Nobody came into the house.

Cross-examined by Mr. Northrup, witness could not say whether there was more than one man in the buggy.

Cross-examined by Mr. Porter, witness said he did not have the money ready for his attention for about a week after.

John Little was not called by the Crown at Milwau. He went to bed shortly after dark on the night of July 17th. He was awakened by dogs barking and cattle lowing. He got up and went down the road a short distance. Only saw one man.

Thought he heard a ring going past the house before he got up. Saw Wesley Reid, who was the driver of the horse, and three-quarters of a mile from the house. He said he was going to drive a horse.

Left him and went towards the house. John Dorseter, driver, said he lived at Milwau. Was awakened by dogs and went out to see what was the matter. Saw a buggy and horse with the cattle. Two men. Was within a few feet of the man who could not describe the man. Men asked him for a drink. Had worked for Wesley Reid at the time. He did not know him since that time. Reid had told him that the truth he was not afraid of.

He did not come to come to court. The man who stood closest to him asked him for a drink, and they were neither the Young nor Wesley Reid.

Cross-examined by Mr. Northrup, witness said he did not talk about the case at Milwau. Could see the two men distinctly when they asked him for a drink, and they were neither the Young nor Wesley Reid.

THE GAME LAW.

For the information of our readers we make the following extracts from the act recently passed in the Ontario Legislature for the better protection of deer.

We advise hunters and others to catch them out and preserve them for reference. Here are the clauses:

1. No person shall at any time hunt, pursue, kill, wound or capture any deer in the water of any river or lake within the limits of Ontario, or immediately after leaving such waters, and any person carrying a rifle, carbine or shot gun, and stationed in a canoe, skiff, punt or boat of any kind, at or near the place where hunted deer are likely to enter the water during the open season, shall prima facie be deemed to be engaged in hunting or pursuing deer within the meaning of this section.

2.—(1) No person who is not a resident of and domiciled in the province of Ontario shall hunt, take, kill, wound or destroy any deer without first having obtained a license to that behalf under the provisions hereinafter set forth.

(2) Every such license shall be signed by the chief fish and game warden and countersigned by the provincial secretary or his deputy, and shall be in force for one season only, and the fee for such license shall be two dollars.

(3) There shall be attached to each license two shipping coupons, one of which shall be signed and detached by the person to whom the license is issued, and the other of the shipping agent at the point of shipment and attached to each deer or part of a deer about to be shipped, and such part shall be cancelled by the carrier on arrival at the point of destination by writing across the face thereof "cancelled."

(4) Sub-section 5 of section 2 of the Ontario Game Protection Act, 1893, is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:

(5) No common carrier or other person shall transport or have in possession for that purpose in this province, after the same has been killed any wild deer, or the skin thereof, or any venison, save only from the first day of November to the twenty-second day of November.

(6) Any person engaged in the hunting or killing of deer shall on request by any person whomsoever, at any reasonable time and as often as reasonably requested, produce and show such license to the person making the request, and if he shall fail to do so he shall forfeit for each offense he may possess, and be liable, if found hunting, taking, pursuing, interfering with or destroying any deer animal, and on proof of such request and failure or refusal, be deemed to have violated the provisions of this section.

(7) Any person offending against any of the provisions of this act shall be liable for each offense to a fine not exceeding $50 nor less than $20, together with the costs of prosecution, and in default of immediate payment of such fine and costs shall be imprisoned in the common jail of the county where such conviction shall take place for a period not exceeding three months.

The season for ducks commences on the 1st of September.

For partridge, quail, woodcock, plovers, quail, etc., September 15th.

For deer, from November 1st to 15th.

Be Sure You are Right.

And then go ahead. If your blood is impure, your appetite failing, your nerves weak, you may be sure that the cause is in your blood. It is the blood that makes the body healthy. This is the medicine which has the largest sale in the world. It is the medicine which has the largest sale in the world. It is the medicine which has the largest sale in the world.

How her face lights up!" exclaimed Mr. Hildred, who was talking of Miss Belle to Miss Hildred.

"It does, indeed," replied the latter young lady.

Mr. Hildred knew that the two girls were rivals, and he wondered at such a disinterested commendation, until Miss Hildred added:

"Yes, her face certainly does light up wonderfully. I suppose that it is the effect of her lantern jaw."

Stooping lower to catch my prize. Waiting their instant which to swoop. Dropping my berries in a listless way. A glancing look at the bird's eye.

And looking up at the moment of flight. I sat on a branch near the old stone wall. Tumbling and tumbling, ready to fall. The poor little mother bird.

HOW OWEN SOUND WAS "MERGED."

The subscribers under which the close of Owen Sound, which gave a Conservative majority of 99 on June 2nd, were in months later, are not far from the notorious speech of Provincial Premier Hardy and other statements of similar character by the Government parties, but are also contained in the following circular, which was freely circulated on behalf of Hon. Mr. Patterson during the campaign.

"The Government, in its friendly disposition towards Owen Sound and North Grey, has offered to a Cabinet Minister to represent us and look after our interests."

"Suppose we refuse to elect the Hon. Mr. Patterson, what position would we be in? We would be in a position to elect a member to represent the Government for the purpose of the Government if we did make such a request of them."

"Let us not forget that Collingwood is a town of 12,000 people, and that we are a town of 12,000 people. That town is our rival, and we are in a position to elect a member to represent the Government for the purpose of the Government if we did make such a request of them."

Daily Intelligencer.

Under this heading the Hamilton Herald, which is a non-partisan journal, has the following pointed remarks:

Numerously, the Conservative party is stronger in Canada than in any other country. But a well organized party, the various sections of which work in unison, is a more common cause, is almost certain to triumph over opposition. The Conservative party, though greater in bulk, are badly organized and are working at cross-purposes. The Liberal party, on the other hand, are well organized and are working in unison. The difference between the two political parties is a clear one. The Liberal party are well organized and are working in unison. The Conservative party, though greater in bulk, are badly organized and are working at cross-purposes.

WOMEN AS THEY PASS

The women of New Zealand have no very high regard for the gradual process of time and experience in bringing about reforms. They believe that two or three aggressive women gathered in convention are equal to a century of time and experience. At a recent convention at Christchurch they have expressed a desire to abolish capital punishment, to nationalize the land, to create a system of old-age pensions and to make legislative sentences reformatory as well as punitive. Not satisfied with so ambitious a program, they go still further in asserting the right of women to sit on juries and to elect to the legislature. The new settlement was passed that is worth setting forth in full. In all cases where a woman desires to superintend a household and to be the mother of children, there shall be a law attaching a certain just share of her husband's earnings or income to her separate use, payable, if she desires, into her separate account.

Mrs. Henry Stanley, the wife of the late Sir Henry Stanley, is a beautiful woman, who can be used in future editions of the Dark Continent. The wheel is the gift of an enterprising American who has had a number of bicycles for the purpose of the most perfect bicycle ever designed. It is a four-wheeled bicycle, with a large wheel in the front and two smaller wheels in the rear. It is a very beautiful machine, and is a very good one for the purpose of the most perfect bicycle ever designed.

The followers of Father Knipe are not a few. He professes to cure many diseases, particularly those of the nerves, by a method of treatment which he calls "the early morning." In Germany it is common to find a number of "early morning" ladies and gentlemen ploughing their way barefooted back and forth across the snow.

Why not Anglicized, Mr. Herald? In England at the present time municipal elections are generally decided on political grounds.

THE QUESTION OF PREROGATIVE

The correspondence between the Governor General and Sir Charles Tupper, with regard to appointments by the outgoing Administration, only gives us in their resignation and after their defeat in the general election, was laid before Parliament on Friday.

The facts disclosed are of such a character as would seem to indicate that Sir Knipe's efforts for to be impartial, as a party man, in dealing with his late advisers, or that his reading of the constitution is entirely at variance with what understood precedent.

As the subject is a very intricate one and will no doubt be fully debated in Parliament, we reserve comment until the subject has been discussed by the representatives of the people. Meanwhile it may be remarked that there is a strong feeling in the constitutional doctrine that Sir Knipe's present advisers are responsible for his every official act and word.

The Hall-lose take was not to be compared, in audacity, to the "free silver" fraud which the Populists are at present trying, by means of a flood of side-saddle oratory, to cajole the people of the United States into adopting in the hope of bettering themselves financially.

Mr. "Wicked Partner" Handy, the hero of Owen Sound, has filled his vacancy in his Administration which was created by the lamented death of the Hon. W. B. Balfour, Provincial Secretary, Mr. J. R. Patterson, the popular member for West Peterborough, made a "big push" for it, but fruitlessly. The "plan" went to Mr. Davis, of York, Minister without portfolio. The section of the province east of Toronto does not count for much with the Grip party, whether in Provincial or Dominion affairs.

Canadian Bar Association.

It is proposed to hold a meeting at Montreal on Tuesday, the 11th of September, at 2:30 p.m., to take the regular steps to form a Canadian Bar Association. The suggestion came from the Provincial law societies some months ago, has been endorsed by many of the law societies in Canada and approved of generally by the profession. Premier Laurier, Sir Oliver Mowat, Sir John A. Macdonald, H. Tupper and many other eminent members of the profession have been favorably impressed by it. It is the beginning of a movement for the improvement of the profession and the science of jurisprudence, and the honor of the profession of the law in Canada.

Fruit is wholesome to eat and the juice of ripe fruit is the best summer beverage. "Montserrat" is the pure juice of ripe Limes, especially cultivated for this purpose on the Island of Montserrat. Taken with plain or aerated water it is a wholesome temperance drink. Try a dash of Montserrat with Claret and Soda or with any spirituous drink.
